PART II—Section 2

Bills and Reports of Select Committees on Bills

PARLIAMENT OF INDIA

The following report of the Select Committee on the Bill to provide for the welfare of labour, and to regulate the conditions of work, in plantations, was presented to Parliament on the 27th September, 1951:—

WE, the undersigned Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to provide for the welfare of labour, and to regulate the conditions of work, in plantations was referred have considered the Bill and have the honour to submit our report with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto.

2. Upon the changes proposed by us which are not formal or consequential, we note as follows:—

Clause 2(f).—We think that the definition of plantation should be restricted to plantations of 25 acres or more employing 30 or more workers.

Clause 2(k).—We are of the opinion that only medical officers, persons whose monthly wages exceed three hundred rupees and persons employed in a managerial capacity even though they are drawing less than three hundred rupees should be excluded from the definition of workers.

Clause 10.—We have omitted certain unnecessary words.

Clause 11.—In our opinion, every plantation employing 150 workers or more should be required to provide a Canteen instead of only plantations employing 250 or more as originally proposed.

Clause 12.—We think that creches should be provided in plantations employing 50 women workers instead of one hundred women workers as originally proposed.

Clause 14.—We think that even where there are 25 children in a plantation the State Government should have powers to require educational facilities to be provided.

Clause 15.—We have omitted the definition of family but have left this matter to be provided by rules under clause 16.

Clause 16.—The rule-making power has been amplified to provide for the definition of family and for the maintenance of kitchen gardens.

Clauses 17 and 18.—These are new and make provision for the appointment of Welfare Officers in the case of plantations employing more than three hundred workers and for suitable protection against rain and cold.

Clause 29 [originally clause 27].—We are of the opinion that the leave provisions should be made more liberal on the lines of the Factories Act.

Clause 30 [originally clause 28].—The amendment in this clause is consequential on the amendment of clause 29.

3. The Bill was published in Part II—Section 2 of the Gazette of India, dated the 16th June, 1951.

4. We think that the Bill has not been so altered as to require circulation under rule 77(4) of the Rules of Procedure and the Conduct of Business in Parliament and we recommend that it be passed as now amended.

The following Bill was introduced in Parliament on the 6th October, 1951:—

A Bill to validate certain marriages solemnized in certain Part B States between the 26th day of January, 1950 and the 31st day of March, 1951, under the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872.

BE it enacted by Parliament as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Part B States Marriages Validating Act, 1951.

2. Validation of certain irregular marriages.—All marriages between persons one or both of whom is or are a Christian or Christians, which were solemnized in any Part B State other than the State of Jammu and Kashmir between the 26th day of January, 1950 and the 31st day of March, 1951, under the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872 (XV of 1872), shall be, and shall be deemed to have been with effect from the date of solemnization of each of them respectively, as good and valid in law as if such marriages had been solemnized by a person duly authorised under the said Act to solemnize such marriages in the Part B State concerned.

3. Validation of records of marriages validated by section 2.—Certificates of marriages which are declared by section 2 to be good and valid in law, and register books, and certified copies of true and duly authenticated extracts therefrom, deposited or purporting to be deposited in compliance with the provisions of the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872 (XV of 1872), in so far as the register, books and extracts relate to such marriages as aforesaid, shall be received as evidence of such marriages as if such marriages had been duly solemnized under the said Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872, provides for the solemnization in India of marriages between persons one or both of whom professes or profess the Christian faith. The Act as it stood before the 26th January, 1950, extended to all the Provinces of India, and, in the case of Indian States, extended only to Christian British subjects. The corresponding laws in those States were inapplicable to them, and marriages in the States between persons one of whom was a Christian British subject were solemnized by ministers of religion holding licences under the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872. By the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950, a new extent clause was substituted for section 1, with the result that the Act became totally inapplicable to Part B States.

By the Part B States (Laws) Act, 1951, which came into force on the 1st April, 1951, the Act now extends to the whole of India except the States of Travancore-Cochin, Manipur and Jammu and Kashmir, and after that date marriages between Christian citizens of India can be solemnized in Part B States generally in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the Act. But during the period 26th January, 1950 to 31st March, 1951, there was no law in force in Part B States under which such marriages could be solemnized. It, however, appears that this position was overlooked when certain marriages were solemnized in good faith in the purported belief that the Indian Christian Marriage Act had continued to authorise the solemnization of such marriages. This anomaly was brought to the notice of the Government of India by the Government of Mysore and also by the High Commissioner to the United Kingdom. Hence the present Bill which follows the lines of various earlier Marriages Validating Acts.
